

University of Management and Technology
Step by Step Guide to Change Domain Password

In this Document

- 1. Changing domain login Password in Windows XP
- 2. Changing domain login password in Windows 7

Step by Step Guide to Change Domain Password

1. Changing domain login Password in Windows XP

- Step 1. Press Ctrl, Alt and Del all together
- Step2. Click the button titled “Change Password”.
- Step3. Provide your old password for the user name given in above text box and then type your new password. Confirm your new password by re-entering the same password in the last, and press OK

Step by Step Guide to Change Domain Password

2. Changing domain login password in Windows 7

- Step 1. Press Ctrl, Alt and Del all together
- Step2. Click the button titled “Change Password”.
- Step3. Provide your old password for the user name given in above text box and then type your new password. Confirm your new password by re-entering the same password in the last, and press OK

STEP 1: Press Ctrl+Alt+Del and Click Change Password	STEP2: Change your Password
 A screenshot of the Windows 7 security screen. It features a blue background with a green diagonal line. Five options are listed with green arrows: 'Lock this computer', 'Switch User', 'Log off', 'Change a password...', and 'Start Task Manager'. The 'Change a password...' option is circled in red. A 'Cancel' button is at the bottom.	 A screenshot of the Windows 7 password change dialog. It has a blue background with a colorful sphere icon at the top. Below the icon are four text boxes: 'User name', 'Old password', 'New password', and 'Confirm password'. Each box has a red arrow pointing left. The 'Confirm password' box has a blue arrow pointing right, which is circled in red. At the bottom, it says 'Log on to: UMT' and 'How do I log on to another domain?'.