

MOUs with Universities/Institutes

The Institute of Islamic Banking has signed MOUs with some renowned Universities/Institutes. The joint benefits from these MOUs are listed here:

1. International Islamic University Malaysia

Faculty and Student Exchange

Joint Research

Joint Conferences

Joint Workshops

2. Islamic Banking Center, King Saud University, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Exchange of Publications and Journals

Joint Research

Exchange of Visitor Researcher

Jointly development and delivering of training courses

Conducting joint research projects and case studies

3. Ammanah Institute of Islamic Banking

Joint collaboration in conferences, seminars, workshops

Exchange of Documentary Publications and Journals

4. Markfield Institute

All MS degree holders in Islamic Banking and Finance from IIB, UMT will be given the waiver in the courses. They are required to take only 2-3 courses at Markfield institute to earn Master degree in Islamic Banking and Management from the University of Newman Birmingham.