1. Introduction

This handbook contains general rules related to the undergraduate and graduate programs offered at the University of Management and Technology (UMT). This handbook aims to familiarize the participant with academic information, along with conveying the expectations of the university administration concerning to participant's ethical and professional conduct and performance.

Each participant is required to familiarize himself/herself with the University's policies and to act in accordance with them. The participant must know that ignorance of rules, regulations and guidelines is not a defense. They are advised in their best interest to study this important document called the "Participant' Handbook" thoroughly and consider it as a book of guidance, during their academic career at the University of Management and Technology (UMT).

The document is intended as a guide and not a substitute to the notifications periodically issued by UMT.

The rules mentioned in this handbook are valid at present.

UMT reserves the right to amend any policy at any point of time.

2. Academic Regulations and Policies

2.1 Academic Calendar

- An academic calendar is issued by Office of the Registrar and contains the following information:
 - i.Semester commencement dates
 - ii.Fee payment dates
 - iii.Semester end dates
 - iv.Final exam week
 - v.Result notification dates
 - vi.Holidays during the semester

Participant are required to adhere to the academic calendar as mentioned above.

This calendar is available at the web page of Office of the Registrar.

2.2 Schedule of Semesters

2.2.1 There are two regular semesters in an academic year i.e. Fall and Spring. Each semester consists of a total of 18 weeks, 16 weeks for teaching and two weeks for examinations.

The University may offer Summer Session comprising eight weeks. Decision to offer the Summer Session is at the discretion of the University.

2.3 Credit Hour

2.3.1 A “Credit Hour” is the unit of measuring educational credit, usually based on the number of contact hours per week during the semester. Each three-credit hour course shall have 45 contact hours (3 hours/week *15 teaching weeks which equals to 45 hours) in a semester.

2.3.2 One credit hour in laboratory or independent study/project would require working for three hours per week, during the semester.

2.4 Course Registration (Enrollment in a Semester)

Participant is required to register courses as per offering of the respective School/Institute in a semester. Course registration of the current participant for upcoming semester is completed in advance as per the schedule mentioned in the University academic calendar.

Participant shall be responsible to check his/her course registration on portal.

2.5 Late Registration

Moreover, late registration will not be entertained, once the add/drop period is completed.

2.6 Course Load

Participant is required to opt for a course load, as per the CGPA requirements mentioned in the table below:

Undergraduate and Master Programs

CGPA	Course Load Allowed (Cr. Hrs.)
2.25 and above	15-18 (Full Course Load)
2.00 to 2.24	Up to 15
1.75 to 1.99	Up to 12 (Course Repeat + Regular Course)
Below 1.75	Up to 9 (preferably Repeat Courses)

2.7 Add/Drop Course(s)

Participant is allowed to add/drop courses before the end of first week of classes via portal, the approval of which shall be granted by the concerned advisor. However, such participant shall have to complete his/her degree program in the maximum time allowed for the completion of that particular degree.

Please note that add/drop of courses shall not be processed on the basis of section change request.

2.8 Repeat Courses

The course(s) with “F” and “W” grade(s) may be repeated in regular semester(s) as well as in Summer session if offered, subject to registration by the participant concerned within due dates. Participant is required to complete the normal semester activities (class attendance, assignments, quizzes, mid-term exam and final examinations). In case of repeating the course(s):

1. The fee has to be paid in advance.
2. In case of extension granted for payment of dues, a fine of Rs. 500/-per day shall be applicable, if not paid within the extended time. The late payment charge will be applied from the date of course registration. Any type of scholarship /financial aid shall not be applicable in such case.
3. Maximum five courses can be repeated in an eight-semester degree program and two courses for 16-years equivalent master’s program. In this case, both the course and the grade obtained shall appear on the transcript, however the higher grade shall be counted in the CGPA.

2.9 Class Attendance

Participant is expected to attend all classes, laboratories, tutorials or other class meetings officially designated for a particular course. A minimum of 80% attendance is required for a participant to be eligible to sit in the final examination/assessment. The course shall be repeated in case of short attendance.

Participant with less than 80% of attendance in a course shall be awarded grade ‘SA’ (Short attendance) and shall not be allowed to take end term exams or assessments.

2.10 Semester Freeze

A participant may freeze his/her semester due to any plausible reason for a maximum period of one year (two semesters in a four/five-year degree program and once in a two-year degree program). However, freezing of first two semesters is not allowed for four/five year’s degree program and first semester in two years program.

Clearance from the Library, IPC and Accounts Office shall be mandatory. The clearance form shall be submitted to the PRS for approval and record.

The participant shall be required to surrender his/her University of Management and Technology participant ID card to PRS. During the “freeze period” the applicant shall lose his/her participant status at UMT and shall not be entitled to avail University facilities.

A participant shall rejoin in the next semester after paying his/her semester fee. The right to use all university facilities shall be resumed upon rejoining and UMT ID card would be available from PRS.

Freezing the semester(s) is a matter of choice and such participant shall not qualify for any relaxation in semester course load or the maximum time specified for completion of the degree.

In case a participant needs to freeze the semester after the Add/Drop Period, application shall only be accepted before midterm examinations and under medical emergencies recommended by the University Medical Officer which shall be submitted to PRS. Such participant shall be charged a processing fee of Rs. 5000.

After maximum semester freeze duration, participant shall rejoin, register for courses and continue his/her studies. However, if they fail the admission shall be cancelled automatically, without any prior information/intimation.

Re-admission fee of Rs. 20,000/- shall be applicable to those students who will miss two consecutive semesters without taking the formal approval. i.e. Semester Freeze. In addition, this fee will also apply to those who apply for re-admission in the same program without going through the admission test.

The participant can only resume the program by paying re-admission fee, along with meeting the academic criteria/within maximum time duration of the degree program.

To unfreeze the semester, the participant shall have to send the request at prshelpdesk@umt.edu.pk or visit in person to file the request to resume his/her program, fifteen days prior to the start of the semester. On submission of the said application by the participant, he/she becomes eligible to access the online course registration for the upcoming semester.

Note

Participant leaving without approval or leaving the end term exams/assessment without approval shall result in the award of an ‘F’ grade.

2.11 Program Duration

The duration for the completion of bachelors and masters' (16-years) degree is appended below. The maximum duration shall be counted from the start of first semester.

Degree Program	Total Duration of Program (Minimum)	Maximum Duration of Program
2 years	2 years	3 years
4 years Undergraduate (Non PEC)	4 years	6 years
4 years Undergraduate (PEC Accredited)	4 years	7 years
5 years Undergraduate	5 years	8 years

11	2 Year Degree (Science) obtained in the regular mode in one university on one academic session/year.	2 Year degree (Arts/Social Science) in the private/distance learning mode in same or different university in one academic session/year.	This combination of degree is allowed.

Guidelines:

- 1- In case of Professional Degrees, the permission of respective councils, for example, Pakistan Medical and Dental Council (PMDC) and Pakistan Engineering Council (PEC) would be required.
- 2- Degrees with time clash are not allowed in any case.
- 3- For the above mentioned degree programs, if the policy of university does not allow for any mode, the degree program cannot be pursued at all.
- 4- Participants must meet the pre requisites and admission requirements of each degree program.

2.13 Withdrawal of Course(s)

2.13.1 Participant may be allowed to withdraw from a course till the end of the 15th week of the semester. Consequently, grade ‘W’ shall be awarded to the participant. Grade ‘W’ has no effect on the GPA/CGPA.

2.13.2 In Process (IP) grade Allocation

In case of Projects/Thesis continuing for two semesters, IP Grade shall be shown in initial semester and grades shall be awarded in last semester based on evaluation of the project. If participant(s) fails to submit project in a specified time i.e. one year, then F Grade shall be awarded.

2.14 Cross Campus Registration

Cross campus registration is allowed. However, the registration for a particular semester is subject to approval of the respective Dean/Director of the School/Institute and availability of seating capacity in the requested course(s).

- a. Participant shall submit request for registration of course(s) through the parent campus (where participant is originally enrolled) by filling a specific form.
- b. The Resource Person shall forward grades to parent campus. The participant record shall be held and managed by parent campus.
- c. A host ID may be issued to such cases without charging ID issuance fee. However, participant ID card fee will be applicable as per University rules. In this regard participant will be required to surrender the participant ID card issued by the other campus.

2.15 Cross Campus Credit Transfer Policy

A participant may transfer his/her credits earned at UMT in other campuses by submitting the following documents, two weeks prior to the start of a new semester.

- a. Credit transfer form with approval of the concerned Dean School/Institute or parent department.
- b. Clearance from lab, library and accounts department of the parent campus.
- c. Progress report signed by the examination office of the parent campus.

Note:

Credit transfer across campuses is subject to the availability of seats in the intended program.

2.16 Inter-School/Institute Program Change

Participant may change his/her program with the approval of Dean/Director of both the parent and destination School/Institute. Program change shall only be allowed for participant who meets the admission criteria of the program to which they want to transfer. For further information participant may contact PRS.

A fee of Rs. 15000/- shall be charged as program change fee.

All policies and fee structure will be applicable as per new program schedule and any previous paid fee will be adjusted in the fee of the new program as per the policy.

Note:

Program change will not be allowed in case the participant is on 'Last Probation.

Program change request can be entertained only once. However, program change for the second time shall require an approval from a competent authority followed by a CGPA requirement of 3.00 or above.

Rs. 15000/= will be charged as program change fee.

Rs.25000/= will be charged as program change fee for the second time.

2.17 Internal Credit Transfer Policy

Participants can apply for transfer of credits to any other program, subject to meeting the criteria of required degree program. Participant is required to submit an internal credit transfer form duly approved by the relevant department.

The applicant shall have to study if any deficient course(s) within the stipulated time for the completion of his/her degree.

The credits transferred are counted in the courses required for completion of a degree program and calculation of CGPA.

Policy Guidelines for Internal Credit Transfer Case(s)

- Internal Credit Transfer is allowed to UMT participants if the program change request fulfills admission eligibility requirements of the new program.
- The applicant must have a CGPA of at least 2.00 for undergraduate programs and 2.50 for MS/MPhil programs and 3.0 for PhD programs.

During admission campaign, participants are required to submit program change form, along with paid copy of program change fee, clearance form and internal credit transfer form. All these forms are available at the following link: <http://www.umat.edu.pk/offices/registrar/DownloadForms.html> (Annex-II) and also in the office of the respective Chairperson. The participants of Sialkot or other campuses transferring their degree programs to UMT Lahore Campus on a permanent basis are required to submit internal credit transfer form, a clearance form and progress report duly signed by the examination office of the parent campus in the office of the respective Chairperson.

- The Chairperson after ensuring the necessary checks will certify, if the participant fulfills the admissions eligibility requirements of the new program or not.
- The Chairperson will authenticate the credit transfer form by putting his/her signature on the credit transfer form. After approval from the Chairperson of the department, the application will be forwarded to the concerned Dean for his approval and signature on the program change as well as credit transfer form.

- After that, the Secretary of Equivalence Committee will put up the case before Equivalence Committee for consideration and final decision.
- The Committee will re-evaluate the case in the light of prevailing policy and finally, the Chairperson of Equivalence Committee will either endorse or reject the case by putting his/her signature on credit transfer form. Meanwhile, the Secretary will record the proceedings of the Committee and will be required to submit minutes of the meeting to ORG afterwards.
- The Secretary will communicate the decision of Equivalence Committee to the participant and will forward the complete case to ORG for implementation.
- Office of the Registrar (ORG) will scrutinize the program change as well as credit transfer Form(s) and a new ID shall be issued to the participant after checking all documents. The previous ID will be blocked.
- The previous course grades and credits applicable to the new program will be counted in calculating CGPA of the new program. However, degree duration will be counted from the starting date of previous degree program.
- Credit transfer under program change will not be allowed in case of dismissal on academic/disciplinary grounds, including expulsion from the University or time barred case (i.e. completed maximum duration of the program after first registration, failing to complete the degree requirements in the stipulated period).

External Credit Transfer Policy

- Through an authentic/logical plea, duly supported by black and white evidence, one can apply for transfer of credits from a Higher Education Commission of Pakistan, recognized university/degree awarding institute to the University of Management and Technology (UMT). However, the participant must file an application, at least one month before the commencement of a regular semester.
- Subject to the similarity and equivalence of at least 80% of courses of the respective discipline/degree for undergraduates and graduate programs and availability of seat(s), the transfer of credit request(s) will be processed for a regular semester only.
- The merit of the applicant should be higher or equivalent to the minimum admission criteria in that particular discipline/degree program/batch.
- The applicant applying for credit transfer will submit an application form accompanied by copies of all previous transcripts, course outlines, his/her latest photograph, duly verified by the Registrar/Principal/Chairperson/Head of the Department of the institution in which he/she is currently enrolled in.
- The applicant must have a CGPA of at least 2.00 for undergraduate programs and 2.50 for graduate programs.

- Depending upon the similarity and equivalence of the courses, only credit hours of courses with at least 60% marks in annual system or C+ and above grade in semester system for bachelor's or B and above grades in master's programs shall be transferrable.
- The participant will provide a clearance certificate from his/her previous institution and will be responsible for initiating the registration process in UMT within the stipulated time.
- The participant will have to cover the entire deficient course(s) (if any) within the stipulated time for the completion of his/her degree.
- The transferred credits will be counted in meeting the degree requirements. However, GPA of transferred credits will not be counted in the calculation of CGPA and only "Transferred" will be written against the course whose transfer of credits was allowed by the respective Dean.
- 50% courses of the total credit hours for the program can be transferred at the undergraduate level and 30% can be transferred in graduate programs of the course work only.

2.18 Independent Study

- A participant may opt for independent study with the consent of the concerned resource person.
- The participant is required to pay Rs. 10,000/- independent study fee in addition to course fee.

Points to be considered for opting IS:

Only one independent study option is allowed during the degree program.

Last semester and only one course is remaining which was graded as F or if the participant is enrolled in 12th semester, in case of non-PEC undergraduate programs and 14th in case of PEC undergraduate programs.

If the course is being offered in a semester, the participant shall not be eligible to apply for an independent study option.

Maximum B+ grade shall be awarded.

Please note that final transcript under such case(s) will only be released after the result declaration date, as mentioned in the academic calendar.

Rules for Probation

Probation is a status granted to the student whose academic performance falls below the minimum University standard.

- i) Participant securing less than 2.00/4.00 CGPA will be placed on probation for the next semester.
- ii) Participant securing less than 1.75 CGPA for two consecutive semesters. He/she has failed in meeting the required CGPA requirements, even after getting enrolled in the summer semester for one academic year.

iii) Participant on probation for two consecutive semesters, even after getting enrolled in the summer semester for one academic year will request for re-admission (once) in that particular academic year.

2.19 Dismissals

The participant shall be dismissed from the University on following grounds:

- a) As per academic probation policy.
- b) Degree time-barred.
- d) As per course repeat policy.
- e) Failed in meeting the admission criteria, in case of provisional admission.

SA (Short Attendance)	-

Grading shall be based on the norms of relative grading system.

In some courses, “P” or “S” is awarded as the final grade. The credits of these courses are counted towards completion of the degree, but these are not used for computation of CGPA.

- Graded Elective course(s), substitute of any other elective course(s)
- Core and compulsory course(s) shall not be converted into ‘NC’

3.4 Grading System for Engineering Participant

- i. Grading shall be based on the norms of relative grading system.
- ii. Minimum marks threshold shall be established for award of a passing letter grade by the subject resource person in consultation with the concerned COD. Participant earning marks below this threshold shall be awarded “F” grade.
- iii. Participant earning marks above the minimum threshold shall be listed in descending order of merit. Passing letter grades shall be awarded based on a normal curve or any other method as deemed suitable with “A+” being the highest passing grade and “C-“ being the lowest passing grade.
- iv. Subjects having lab component shall be treated as separate independent subjects. They shall be assessed in continuous mode against 40% marks and the end term viva voce shall be held for 60% marks. COD will ensure that viva voce must be conducted by a minimum of two teachers, including the one who has conducted the lab.
- v. In theory subjects, midterm exam shall carry 25-30% marks and the curriculum coverage shall not be less than 40%. End term exam shall carry 50% marks and 30% exam questions shall be set from midterm curriculum. The remaining marks shall be allocated to quizzes, assignments, presentations, etc.

3.5 Award of Incomplete (I) Grade

A participant, owing to an emergency or a plausible reason, may apply for the award of 'I' (Incomplete) grade. Such application is acceptable upon recommendation of the Advisor/COD and approval of the Dean/Director. However, approval on application form is mandatory which must be submitted to the Controller of Examinations.

The participant will just appear for the end term exam of the course(s) graded 'I' in the very next semester. Attendance, midterm and sessional evaluation for such course(s) will be considered as it was at the time of awarding 'I' grade. If a participant fails to take end term exams in the very next semester, the 'I' grade will change into 'F' and the participant will repeat the required course(s).

Private arrangements for an "I" graded examination between a participant and an instructor are not allowed.

Participants missing a re-scheduled exam shall not be given a second chance.

The policy is designed to establish rules and regulations that govern advertisements and publicity acts in the form of posters, signs, flyers, banners etc. in the University of Management and Technology. Such advertisements and publicity acts shall be permitted to participants subject to prior approval from the Head, Office of Campus Management and Services.

- All such items must be restricted to Advertisement Points as designated by the Office of Campus Management and Services and affixed in such a way so as not to damage the wall or surface to which they are affixed
- Upon approval from Head, Office of Campus Management and Services and consent of that Department's Chairperson/Office's Head, such items may be affixed within an Academic Department or Support Office. If a situation is created otherwise, the Department's Chairperson or Office's Head shall assume responsibility for any damage that may occur thereafter
- All the departments, clubs, groups and/or individuals responsible for the affixation of such items are also responsible for ensuring their removal and the removal of all items used in affixing those postings/items. Damage resulting from the removal of improperly affixed items shall be repaired at the expense of the party responsible for the placement of such items
- The content of such items must not promote any political, religious, racial or cultural hatred. Content of such items must not promote and/or encourage the use of tobacco or other illegal and recreational drugs
- If any party or individual has concerns regarding the content of any such item, the Office of Campus Management and Services should be contacted for further guidance
- The Office of Campus Management and Services and the Security personnel reserves the right to refuse to display such items or remove any item that does not comply with this policy or any applicable University policy. Moreover, Head, Office of Campus Management and Services is also authorized to take any disciplinary action in case of non-compliance with this policy

14. Sports Rules and Regulations

All individuals and teams involved in sports are expected to show sportsmanship, respect, consideration and appreciation towards their opponents, team-mates, officials and University staff at all times.

- a. Under no circumstances should a player or sportsperson react in a violent manner nor use any form of foul or abusive language, whether it is directed at a member of the staff, match official, opponent, playing colleague, team official or spectator
- b. Individuals signing the player registration form agree to abide by this code of conduct and shall accept that any deviation from these rules shall result in disciplinary action by the University
- c. Persons under the influence of drugs are not permitted to participate in sports activities at the University and such defaulters shall be liable to disciplinary action by UMT
- d. Note: please remember that no referee, umpire or official is perfect. You may not agree with every decision that is made and, just like players; the umpires and sports officials too may make mistakes.

15. Information Processing Center (IPC)

Information Processing Center (IPC) is intended to provide ultra-modern computing facilities. IPC facilitates more than 10,000+ participants and serves 2000-3000 participants daily. Our standards meet the international requirements of highly advanced IT equipment and services. Participants of the university are being served with the latest IT facilities, in an ideal working environment, by a highly skilled and professional team.

IPC is equipped with 1100+ computers of the latest technology, including 650 i7, 500+ i5 and Apple Mac which comprises; 3 General Computing Centers with 500+ PCs, 12 computer classrooms with 50-55 PCs each and a separate project lab and HEC-Scholars Graduate Lab and DLD Lab with required software and printing services.

Some of our core and state-of-the-art computing services are as follows:

- Login Account Management
- Internet Access

15.2 Web Browsing Policy

15.2.1 Purpose

UMT encourages its community (faculty, participants and staff) to use the Web as a useful repository of information and an effective medium of communication and learning. The purpose of this section is to make members of our community aware of the type of unacceptable Web-related activities and of the repercussions of not following this policy.

15.2.2 Policy

The UMT community should use the Web for work-related activities only because any other activity on the Web adversely affects the academic use of the Internet bandwidth. Whereas, some non-academic activities such as browsing of web-based daily newspapers is understandable and should be kept to a minimum. The following e-activities are not permitted on campus:

- Downloading or streaming movies
- Downloading or streaming music
- Online trading of shares in local or international financial markets (stock exchanges)
- Excessive browsing of sports websites, in particular those whose content is updated periodically (e.g. cricinfo.com)

Browsing sites with pornographic, obscene material or browsing banned sites (in Pakistan) or downloading pornographic material. 17.5.3 Browsing Log

UMT maintains a log of all internet activity done through the use of University's IT resources. This log contains relevant information about a Web activity, including user name, computer used (IP address of the machine), date and time of activity, duration of activity and URL (Universal Resource Locator or Web address) of the web page browsed.

15.2.3 Penalty for Abuse

The University expects a high degree of responsibility on part of the users of this facility. Violation of this policy may lead to disciplinary action including expulsion from the University. Note that it is the responsibility of a user to protect his/her password and not share it with others. A user shall be held responsible for any activity done with his/her username.

15.2.4 Unauthorized Use of Computer or Electronic Communication Devices

Theft or other abuse of computer facilities and resources including but not limited to:

- (1) Unauthorized access to a file with the intention of using, reading or changing the content or for any other purpose
- (2) Unauthorized transfer of a file
- (3) Use of another individual's identification and/or password
- (4) Interference with the work of another participant, faculty member or University official
- (5) Sending obscene abusive or threatening messages
- (6) Transmission of computer viruses
- (7) Interfering with normal operation of the University's computing system
- (8) Unauthorized duplication of software or other violation of copyright laws
- (9) Unauthorized access to or unauthorized, mischievous or malicious use of University's computer equipment, networks or electronic communication devices, or the use of such equipment or devices to gain unauthorized access to and/or use of, off-campus computer equipment

15.3 Participant Moodle Account

UMT-LMS (Moodle) is an Open Source Course Management System (CMS), also known as a Learning Management System (LMS) or a Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). All participants and faculty members shall have access to Moodle and are expected to utilize it.

If you are facing any problem using Moodle, please email at lms.support@umt.edu.pk

16. Learning Resource Center (LRC)

UMT supports its academic programs and research initiatives through a fully automated library, on-site collections and a variety of online services. UMT library is an indispensable source of information and is one of the finest working libraries in Pakistan. The number of corporate clients and alumni who continue to use its services on a regular basis testifies to the quality of UMT library. Experienced library professionals and staff members always assist the users with the library's comprehensive information and research materials. The integrated library system facilitates lending, reference and information services and also offers a comprehensive service portfolio for the participant, faculty and researchers. Library services are supported through a dedicated line which provides participant access to periodicals, databases, online searching and browsing.

16.1 Information and Orientation Sessions

Regular library orientation sessions are held to enhance information-handling skills of the library users and also to increase the effectiveness of research.

16.2 Timing and Access

Except for designated official holidays, the library is open six days a week from 0800 hrs to 2100 hrs for participants with a valid UMT Identification Card.

16.3 General Rules

- Participant may get a photocopy card from the library circulation desk for Rs.60/- that is valid for 40 copies

16.4 Borrowing Rules

All registered members with a valid UMT ID are entitled to borrow library materials. The borrowing privileges may differ depending upon the membership category. The borrowing privileges for different membership categories are:

Category	Borrowing Privileges	Time Period
Undergraduate Programs	4	14 days
Graduate Programs	6	14 days

- Valid UMT Identification Card is necessary to borrow library's material
- Books borrowed by any individual can be reserved
- Reserved books may be collected within 3 days from the circulation desk
- Book(s) borrowed by any individual can be renewed for a period of 14 days as long as the same is not reserved by another patron
- Non-circulating materials such as reference books, CAD collection, CD-ROMs, annual reports, current journals, journals and newspaper archives, audio/video materials, text books, and research projects cannot be borrowed
- Non-circulating materials can only be used within the library
- Any of the borrowed library's material is subject to recall as and when needed by the library
- If the participant misplaces any material of the library, he/she should immediately report the incident to the circulation desk to avoid overdue fines
- Any material of the library if not returned within 30 days after the due date shall be considered as lost

16.5 Library Fines

Certain fines are charged for overdue (not returned on time) library materials. This is an effort to provide participants an equal opportunity to make use of the library's material and to maximize sharing of library's collections.

- Overdue fine is charged from the first overdue date/day
- Overdue fine on general books would be Rs.10/- per book per day
- Overdue fine on temporarily issued materials would be Rs.50/- per hour
- Loss of library's material would be charged three times the current price OR replacement of the material(s) with Rs.100/- additional as processing charges
- Rs.5000/- in addition to the current price would be charged in case of stealing the library's material
- In case of any disciplinary violations Rs.200/- would be charged for the first violation and Rs.500/- for second violation. In case of repeated violations, the issue may be referred to the concerned disciplinary committee

17. Participant Grievance Procedure

Purpose: The Participant Grievance Procedure is available to any UMT participant(s) who seeks to resolve any grievance involving an alleged violation directly affecting that participant, by any member of the University's community while acting in an official capacity (e.g. faculty member, administrator, staff member) of any of the written policies of the University or the school in which the participant is enrolled.

Phase One: Attempt to Resolve the Matter through Informal Resolution

1. Direct Discussion: Participant wishing to grieve an alleged violation of the University's policies shall first contact, within twenty (20) working days of any occurrence giving rise to the grievance or the time they could reasonably have learned of such occurrence, the person responsible for the matter being grieved (the respondent) and attempt to resolve the grievance informally.
2. Informal Mediation: At the request of the grievant or respondent, the concerned Chairperson or Dean/Director shall arrange a meeting for the parties, attend the meeting(s) and attempt to aid in the resolution of the grievance.
3. Advisement: Participant uncertain about how to proceed may consult their Advisors who shall identify the appropriate person.

Phase Two: Formal Review

(If the matter is not resolved in Step One)

1. Filing of a Written Complaint: If the grievance is not resolved informally within fifteen (15) working days after the grievant contacted the appropriate person directly, to attempt an informal resolution, a participant may obtain review by submitting a written complaint to the Office of the Rector, the Office of the Registrar and the respondent. The letter must be sent within twenty (20) working days of the first direct contact that the grievant had with the respondent (person he/she felt to be responsible for the situation). In his/her letter of complaint, the grievant must include the following:
 1. The specific written University policy that allegedly has been violated
 2. A description of the facts and evidence supporting the alleged violation
 3. A description of the redress that the grievant seeks

Appointment of the Ombudsman and the Dispute Resolution Board:

The Board shall be convened by the Rector in conjunction with the Registrar and shall be chaired by the Ombudsman (appointed by the Rector). The Board shall include the Dean or Director of the concerned school or institution, Chairperson of the Department which offers the program the participant is enrolled in, the participant(s) faculty advisor(s), Head OHR and one other faculty member as appointed by the Rector.

The Dispute Resolution Board shall:

4. Meet with the complainant
5. Meet with other persons as he/she shall deem appropriate for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and attempting to resolve the complaint

Render a written report on the merits of the matter to the grievant, the respondent, and the Rector.

Phase Three:

Decision by the Rector: Based on the written report by the Dispute Resolution Board, the Rector shall take appropriate action concerning the dispute.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

UMT is committed to providing a working, learning and living environment, free from discrimination and harassment and to fostering a nurturing and vibrant community founded upon the fundamental dignity and worth of all of its members.

Disability Services

Disability Services facilitates equal access for participants with disabilities by coordinating accommodations and support services, cultivating a campus culture that is sensitive and responsive to the needs of each participant. Participants seeking accommodation or support services from the Disability Services are required to register with the Office of Campus Management and Services (South side main building).

TA/RA Code of Conduct:

Participant appointed as Teacher Assistant (TA) or Research Assistant (RA) should act in an ethical and professional manner. They should not by any means abuse their position and indulge in unfair activities. TA/RA's should:

- Mark and grade with consistent and transparent standards

- Have integrity
- Respect diversity
- Treat participants with respect
- Acknowledge boundaries

Be fair, equitable and must not practice favouritism

18 Relationship between Participant and Faculty/Staff:

The University considers that close, intimate and/or exclusive relationship between faculty/staff and the participant whom they teach, assess or are otherwise responsible for, raise serious questions of conflict of interest, trust and confidence and dependency in working relationships and of equal treatment in teaching, learning, selection, assessment and research. There is a danger that such relationships exploit the relationship of authority and trust that is inherent in the relationship between members of the staff and participants. Amorous relationships and relationships which demonstrate disrespect for others or lack professionalism in interpersonal conduct between faculty/staff members and participants are strictly prohibited. Although there is inevitably a subjective element in the witnessing or experiencing of such behaviours, certain actions are clearly inappropriate and shall not be tolerated by the university. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Unwanted physical contact (e.g. hitting, slapping, kicking, pushing) or the threat of the same
- Meetings after official hours in office, inviting participant(s) to office without any academic reasons
- Exchange of personal information, such as phone numbers, pictures, personal email ID's
- Be-friending on social media (including but not limited to: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, Messengers, Myspace, Google+, WhatsApp, Viber

- Loss of personal civility including shouting, personal attacks or insults, displays of temper (such as throwing objects)
- Discrimination of any form in teaching and assessment based upon age, gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability or sexual orientation
- Request others to perform inappropriate personal errands unrelated to the didactic, investigational or clinical situation at hand
- Grading/evaluation on factors unrelated to performance, effort or level of achievement
- Unnecessary delay in posting of grades or evaluation of assessments

Sexual Misconduct

In case Sexual Misconduct occurs, participants can follow the instructions given below:

A. If assault occurs:

- i. Exit the situation and seek safety. If needed, call OSSV or police to assist by dialling OSSV contact number or 15
- ii. Seek prompt medical attention, preferably at on-campus medical unit or the closest hospital to you if you are outside of the UMT area. It is essential that survivors of sexual assault receive medical treatment and support as soon as possible. The sooner a sexual assault is reported, the easier it is to collect valuable evidence, regardless of desire to use the evidence to pursue any type of legal or judicial action
- iii. Evidence collection is most effective within 72 hours. To facilitate evidence collection, the survivor:

- a. Should not bath
- b. Should not urinate
- c. Should not drink any liquids
- d. If oral contact has occurred, the victim should not smoke, eat or brush teeth, and
- e. The survivor should not change clothes. If clothes have been changed, soiled clothes should be placed in a paper bag (plastic destroys crucial evidence) separating items to prevent contamination

B. If harassment occurs:

- i. Exit the situation and seek safety. If needed, contact OSSV or the police to assist by dialling OSSV contact number or 15
- ii. If possible, clearly explain to the person causing the harassment that the conduct ceases immediately

Participants may resolve their grievances via the Participant Grievance Procedure.

19 On-Campus Participant (Participant) Counseling Service (Participant counselor):

The Counseling Services staff provides participants with a safe place to express their thoughts and feelings and manage the stresses of university life. All sessions are completely confidential. Such participants can get the appointment via email at shaheen.firdous@umt.edu.pk to contact Ms. Shaheen Firdous. Her office is located in Admin Building (Level-2), OPA (Office of Participants Affairs).

Social Media Policy:

Although UMT does not officially monitor participant's online activity, violations of the Participant Code of Conduct or official UMT policy that are brought to the administration's attention shall be acted on accordingly.

Wi-fi Access:

Wi-fi access is available in the Library and every UMT building.

Career Services (OCLP):

The Office of Corporate Linkages and Placements supports current participants, prospective participants and alumni through a wide array of career education services and resources. Contact information is mentioned above.

20 Emergency Communications:

UMT uses an emergency response communication system, to immediately inform the campus community of emergency situations as well as cancelations and closures caused by severe weather.

Participants shall receive text messages, phone calls and/or e-mails immediately as news pertaining to any form of emergency situation. In order to receive these updates, participants must provide the updated information to PRS by submitting the information update form available at the University photocopier.

Emergency Phone Numbers/Helplines:

Emergency Phone Numbers/Helplines are displayed in every classroom, lab, and common room on-campus. In addition, they are displayed in corridors and halls. List of emergency numbers is also annexed to this handbook.

Terrorism or Suspicious Activity On-Campus:

Report Suspicious Activity

If you see something suspicious or if you receive information that may indicate that the campus may be targeted for terrorist activity, notify OSSV Department immediately. Please note, your safety comes first, therefore, DO NOT:

- Ignore your instincts
- Take direct action
- Confront the individual

If you become aware of suspicious activity, DO:

- Call 15 and 1122 if there is a life-threatening situation
- When reporting suspicious activity, it helps to give the most accurate description possible
- Notify the OSSV Department as soon as possible and describe the activity you observed:
 - Brief description of the activity
 - Date, time and location of the activity
 - Physical identifiers of anyone you observed
 - Descriptions of vehicles
 - Information about where people involved in suspicious activities may have gone
 - Your name and contact information (optional)

Lockdown Procedures:

In the event of a severe threat to safety it may be necessary to “Lockdown” the Campus to protect occupants and minimize the overall exposure to danger. Notice of a “Lockdown” shall be broadcast over the Campus Alerting System which consists of P/A speakers in the hallways, Desktop Alerts and SMS Text Alerts. If you hear a Lockdown Message take the following immediate action:

- Get to a safe place out of hallways or common areas
- Close and lock the door
- Move away from doors and windows
- Sit on the floor or crouch behind desks and be quiet
- Put cell phones or devices that generate noise on silent mode
- Do NOT answer the door
- Do not evacuate until contacted by Lahore Police or until you receive specific directions over the P/A system
- In case of a medical or other emergency during a Lockdown call 15 or 1122

Healthcare Information:

A physician or nurse practitioner is available on-campus to provide clinical evaluation, treatment of minor illnesses and injuries and evaluation and referral for more serious illnesses and injuries. Participants do not incur any additional costs for their visits.

Disclosure of Contagious Disease:

Participants suffering from a contagious disease need to inform the PRS and the Medical Unit immediately of the disease once they are diagnosed. They would also need to provide details of every person they may have come in contact with, of sufficient degree to pass the disease, within UMT premises. The information thus provided shall be confidential and shall only be disclosed for medical purposes and as far as possible, the identity of the participant shall be protected.

The following diseases are considered contagious under this rule. The list may be amended.

- Tuberculosis (TB)

List of infectious diseases provided at WHO website:

http://www.who.int/topics/infectious_diseases/factsheets/en/index.html.

Submission of Health Records:

All newly admitted participants need to submit their complete information at the Office of Participant Relation Management in the health record form available at University photocopy shop.

21. Submission of Immunization Records:

All newly admitted participants (graduate, undergraduate and transfers) must provide evidence of vaccination with two doses of the combined MEASLES (RUBEOLA), MUMPS, RUBELLA (MMR) vaccine, if not immune by history of disease or laboratory titer. They also need to provide evidence of immunization of the following: Polio; Diphtheria (Dpt), Whooping Cough, Tetanus; Meningococcal Meningitis, Tetanus Booster (most recent).

The evidence needs to be provided to the Office of Registrar before the commencement of classes.

Dining/Cafeteria Services:

A café operates at Main Building, offering tea, coffee, meals, snacks and more from 9:00 am till 9:00 pm. In addition to this, tuck shops, are operative on 2nd Floor, Library Building and a Juice Corner behind the main Building, near photocopy shops.

Bookstore/Photocopying Services:

Multiple photocopy shops operate in UMT. They provide photocopy, printing and binding services to participants throughout the semester at affordable rates.

Banking Facilities:

ATMS are located at two locations on campus. Ground floor (North side) and Ground floor (south side), Main Building. In addition, a branch of Habib Bank Limited (HBL) is operative on-campus (Bank Building, Ground Floor).

Religious and Spiritual Life:

A Jamia Mosque is established on-campus, where Jummah prayers and Eid prayers are held, in addition to Jammah prayers five times a day. UMT welcomes participants from all religious backgrounds. Participants from different religious backgrounds are free to follow their religious practices on-campus.

Confidentiality of Participant Records:

With the exception of limitations herein stated, UMT permits any participant, presently or previously enrolled, access to her/his official records created during her/his period of enrolment. The creation and maintenance of participants' records are based upon recommended practices and except for the permanent academic transcript, records are destroyed periodically.

Missing Participant Procedure and Notification:

If a member of UMT has reason to believe that a participant is missing, they should immediately notify OSSV and the concerned program director. All possible efforts shall be made to locate the participant to determine their state of health and well-being through collaboration with OSSV, the Office of Registrar and other offices as appropriate. Concurrently, UMT officials shall endeavor to determine the participant's whereabouts through contact with friends, associates and/or employers of the participant. If not located within 24 hours of receiving the initial report, notification of the missing participant's biological and physical information shall also be provided to other law enforcement agencies to help locate the participant. In accordance with UMT's Missing Participant Procedure and Notification Policy, each participant is required to identify the specific person whom UMT should contact within 24 hours of determining that the participant is missing.
