Ongoing Programs

Faculty Secondment Program (FSP) 2025

FSP is UMT's distinguished program that creates powerful collaborations to deliver real-world impact. Through this program, UMT is building powerful collaborations that:

- Foster innovation and creativity
- Address real-world industry challenges
- Develop solutions for a future-ready economy

Industry Voices on FSP

This program is a great initiative by UMT to bridge the gap between academia and industry.

Muhammad Ali Muqaddas

Head of Human Resources
MAN Energy Solutions Pakistan

This is a beneficial program through which faculty can learn research innovations. The secondnee has learned different microbiological techniques including SDS page, PCR and Vaccine propagation. We hope this will be helpful for future collaboration.
