

Blended Learning German Language Program Center for Languages, ILA

Program details

The Center for Languages at the Institute of Liberal Arts, in collaboration with German partners DCG Halle and DUO, is starting German language classes on the UMT campus. These classes will include a specialized online learning platform by DUO in which students will be enrolled for self-study.

In October 2021, the first module (A1.1) is being offered, and this will be followed by further modules (A1.2, A2.1, A2.2, B1.1, B1.2, B2.1, B2.2, and C1.1).

Students have four routes of study to choose from – three of these routes follow a normal track of 10 hours of classroom sessions per week for eleven weeks for every module, while one route is fast-tracked with 16 hours of classroom sessions per week for seven weeks.

For further details about the routes and modules, please contact Mr. Usama Nazeer at the Center for Languages at usama.nazeer@umt.edu.pk. You can also find the information on the program brochure and online at the website of the Center for Languages (<https://ila.umt.edu.pk/cfl/home.aspx>)

At the successful completion of each module, the student will get a certificate for that module from DUO.

Class start date: October 11, 2021

Application details:

Application and payment deadline: September 24, 2021

Please fill in the form below, and attach a recent passport photograph with your application (email or hard copy).

Email your application to Mr. Usama Nazeer at usama.nazeer@umt.edu.pk or submit a hard copy to the Admissions Office or Center for Languages, ILA at UMT.

Fee details:

For students opting for the normal track (Options A, B, and C), fee for one module: Rs. 32,000

For students opting for the fast track (Option D), fee for one module: Rs. 33,000

Refund policy: The fee for the program is non-refundable. However, if the program does not start, 100 percent of the fee will be refunded to the applicant.

You will be issued a voucher from the Admissions Office, using which you will make the payment before the deadline in order to be enrolled in the program.

Blended Learning German Language Program
Center for Languages, ILA

Application Form

Attach Photograph

Name: _____

Father's/Guardian's Name: _____

CNIC: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Gender: _____ Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

- Affiliation with UMT:
- Current Student (Student ID: _____)
 - Former Student
 - Employee (Employee ID: _____)
 - No affiliation

Please select the route you want to join (see details of the four routes below):

- Option A: Individual Module
- Option B: DSH route (2 years of German language classes in UMT, 1 year of German language classes at Central Language Center at Anhalt University in Germany)
- Option C: Normal track TestDaF route (3 years of German language classes and preparation for the TestDaF exam in UMT, and students can take the TestDaF exam on their own)
- Option D: Fast track TestDaF route (2 years of German language classes and preparation for the TestDaF exam in UMT, and students can take the TestDaF exam on their own)

Route	Option A: Individual modules	Option B: DSH route	Option C: Normal track TestDaF route	Option D: Fast track TestDaF route
Details	Students can opt for every module separately	Students will study two years (six modules from A1.1 to B1.2) at UMT, and then continue their language learning at Anhalt University in Germany.	Students will study three years at UMT, covering nine modules (A1.1 to C1.1). They will then take the TestDaF exam on their own, after preparing for six months including at UMT.	Students will study for two years at UMT, covering nine modules (A1.1 to C1.1). They will then take the TestDaF exam on their own.
Module offered in October 2021	A1.1	A1.1	A1.1	A1.1
Number of weeks	11	11	11	7
Number of hours per week	10	10	10	16
Module fee	Rs. 32,000	Rs. 32,000	Rs. 32,000	Rs. 33,000