The evidenced based research report

We will have a brain-storming session, where students' ideas will be moderated by the resource person to generate and refine research topic(s) from students' observations of negotiations in public, not-for-profit organizations or governments.

Grading criteria

- 1) Understanding of the topics
- 2) Ability for Critical Thinking
- 3) Initiative in asking questions and expressing
- 4) Coherent organization of content
- 5) Scholarship (citations and references where appropriate)
- 6) Adherence to Research Methods
- 7) Academic Integrity

All assignments and material must be turned in by the dates assigned. Please plan accordingly!

1. The evidenced based research report

This is the cornerstone of the course. The paper must reflect two things: group synergy, and the ability to apply the acquired knowledge

2. Class Participation, Discussion, Presentations

This whole activity is crucial for better grades, therefore, come prepared to the class for discussion and studied response

3. On the spot test

Readings are the most important part of the course. In order to assess the students' understanding of topics and receive feedback on reading, on-the-spot-test can be taken. This will be treated in conjunction with class participation

4. Attendance

Be regular and punctual. If you do not attend, you cannot participate. Plan personal vacation, social commitments, and travel around the class schedule

5. Readings

There are readings for each topic. I will provide hard copies of the readings; these readings are designed to help you think about the topic critically

6. Timelines

Please adhere to the timelines

Academic Integrity Policy: Academic integrity is the central value of an academic community. It is expected that graduate students will neither engage in nor facilitate cheating (using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids), fabrication (falsification or invention of any information or citation), or plagiarism (representing the words or ideas of others as one's own) in their academic work. The Academic Integrity Policy contains strict sanctions, including expulsion, for all forms of academic dishonesty. Students found guilty of violating other UMT norms, such as engaging in moral and ethical misconduct, or in actions that are harmful to others or threaten the orderliness and wellbeing of the campus, are subject to equally strict sanctions in accordance with these norms and UMT regulations.

Make-up Exams and Late Assignments: There will be no make-up exams, unless there is a valid (documented) reason for not taking the scheduled exams, and prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Fifty percent of the grade will be deducted for each day an assignment is late.

This is a highly interactive course with graded class activities
